

CREATING A CLEAR VISION IN A CHANGING CLIMATE

Dusit Thani Guam Resort Tumon, Guam - February 20, 2020 8:00 am – 5:00 pm

7:00 am -8:00 am EXHIBIT TABLE SET UP

8:00 am – 8:30 am Ball Room A&B	Registration, Light Refreshments and Exhibit Tables
8:30 am – 8:45 am Ball Room A&B	Welcome Remarks - Tyrone Taitano, Director, Bureau of Statistics and Plans
8:45 am – 9:00 am Ball Room A&B	Opening Remarks -The Honorable Lou A. Leon Guerrero, Governor of Guam
9:00 am -9:15 am Ball Room A&B	Climate Change Resilience Commission Report - Evangeline D. Lujan, Chairwoman
9:15 am – 10:15 am Ball Room A&B	Track 1 Flood Control This session will discuss real life scenarios of flooding issues around the island. Agencies will provide an overview of agency mandates to dispel common misconceptions and look at the challenges and gaps with managing flood as well as offer potential solutions for flooding on Island. Moderated by Marie Auyong, NOAA Coastal Zone Management Liaison • CDR Brian G. Bearden, P.E., BCEE, Chief Engineer, U.S. Public Health Service, / Water Division Director, Guam Environmental Protection Agency • Masoud Teimoury, P.E., Ph.D. Chief of Engineering, Department of Public Works • Paul Santos, Chief of Cadastre, Department of Land Management
10:15 am -10:30 am	Break Networking
10:30 am – 11:30 am	Workshop Session 1 Ball Room A&B US Army Corps of Engineers. Strategies, Actions, and Implementation - Crossing the divide from assessment to Design and Construction. Jeff Herzog, USACE Silver Jackets Coordinator Edwin Reyes, Administrator Guam Coastal Management Program	Workshop Session 2 Salon 1 An Introduction to Federal Consistency Federal actions, projects funded with federal funds, and projects requiring federal permit. Find out how Federal Consistency applies. Mr. Julian Janssen, Federal Consistency Coordinator, Guam Coastal Management Program	Workshop Session3 Salon 2 Decisions Support Tools - Digital Coast. Examples on ways to see our landscape through a compressive lens. Marie Auyong, NOAA Coastal Zone Management Liaison. Esther Taitague, Planner IV, Guam Coastal Management Program

11:30 am – 12:00 pm Ball Room A&B	Keynote Speaker – The Honorable Joshua F. Tenorio, Lieutenant Governor of Guam
WORKING LUNCH 12:00 pm – 12:30 pm Ball Room A&B	Guam Forest System Plan. This presentation will cover how the Guam Forest System Plan, as authorized by the Legacy Act of Guam, will serve as the instrument to work across agencies to ensure critical forests ecosystems are managed and protected. • Chelsa Muña-Brecht, Director, Guam Department of Agriculture • Jathan Muna Barnes, Land Use Planner, Guam Coastal Management Program.
12:30 pm – 1:00 pm Ball Room A&B	GCMP Public Access Report Jay R. Merrill, MRD will share the findings from a study on barriers to public access.
1:00 pm – 2:00-pm Ball Room A&B	Track 2 – Land Moderated by Edwin Reyes, Administrator, GCMP. This track will discuss the state of Guam’s lands, as well discuss issues and solutions to ensure that land-uses promote economic growth and sustainable development. The discussion will also focus on the feasibility of modernizing the Guam Comprehensive Development Plan. • Celine Cruz, Acting Territorial Chief Planner, Department of Land Management • Tyrone J. Taitano, Director, Bureau of Statistics and Plans • Jack E. Hattig, III, Administrative Director, Chamorro Land Trust Commission
Ball Room A&B 2:00 pm – 2:15 pm 2:15 pm –2:55 pm	Track – 3 – Zero Waste Moderated by Patti Arroyo, Sorenson Media Group Introduction of Zero Waste Initiative - Conchita Taitano, Division Administrator, Air and Land Division, Guam EPA Biosolids Composting Demonstration Project. Description: Progress on Guam’s first biosolids composting demonstration project. In this session, you will learn about the purpose, methods, and initial monitoring and testing results. Discussion on potential long-term strategy for managing this organic resource. • Todd O. Williams, P.E., BCEE, Jacobs • Walter Leon Guerrero, Administrator, Guam Environmental Protection Agency • Robert Salas, President, Landscape Management System, Guam

Ball Room A&B 3:00 pm -3:30 pm	Track – 3 – Zero Waste Guam Food Waste Report & Food Recovery Opportunity - Description: Release of the food waste data for Guam; Introduction of new food recovery project between the Hyatt Regency Guam, Salvation Army, and Guam Department of Public Health and Social Services. • Cory Hinds, P.E., Project Manager, Jacobs • Mirko Agostini, Executive Chef, Hyatt Regency Guam • Lourdes Hongyee, Program Coordinator, Salvation Army • Katherine Del Mundo, Food and Safety Program Manager, DPHSS
3:35 pm – 3:50 pm	Break
Ball Room A&B 3:55 pm-4:35 pm	Waste Composition Study -. Description: Knowing what you are throwing away helps guide zero waste solutions. Release of data from the study on the composition of waste disposed in the landfill and illegal dumpsites. Discussion on recommendations for reducing and diverting waste from the landfill. • Cory Hinds, P.E., Project Manager, Jacobs • Edwin Reyes, Administrator, Guam Coastal Management
4:35 pm-4:45 pm	What's Next? Description: Update on the efforts on zero waste community outreach and education for Guam. • Therese Arroyo-Matanane, Managing Partner, Greenlight Media Productions • Cathy Gogue, Director, Client Services, Greenlight Media Productions
4:50 pm-5:00 pm	Closing and 2/21/2020 Fieldtrip Debriefing - Description: Details and logistics on fieldtrip to biosolids composting demonstration project. • Conchita Taitano, Division Administrator, Air and Land Division, Guam EPA
Day Two - February 21, 2020 EPA Led Field Day	